

Version 2: condensed

- The IAB partners with researchers at organizations in multiple countries and provides specialized access to German labor market data
- OLDA partners with researchers at multiple institutions and with a variety of data providers within the state of Ohio
- DIME works with diverse data globally, with a highly specialized internal research team
- The Stanford-SFUSD Partnership builds a close relationship between one research institution and one data provider